

KGVI

[equipping young people aged 17 – 21 to move into leadership]

youth leadership training

What is KGVI?

KGVI is a leadership course for young people aged 18-25. It involves 2 week long residential experiences with all that you need to become a leader in The Boys' Brigade. The training allows you to work in all 3 sections in BB: Anchors, Juniors and Company.

Who is it for?

All those aged 17 to 21 years old that would like to move into leadership in The Boys' Brigade.

What happens at KGVI?

All participants will cover the core and some additional modules of Youth Leader Training (basic training for all leaders in The Boys' Brigade). The first year residential involves practical learning/tutorials and second year focuses on demonstrations. The year in between is spent as an officer cadet in your company.

Through this participants will have an opportunity to:

- learn new skills
- make new friends
- get new ideas and inspiration
- explore your own faith
- grow in confidence
- share & widen experiences

Next course: Sat 22 - Fri 28 July 2017

